

Listen, my son to your father!

Proverbs 4:1

By Rev. Thomas A. Robb

Between 1954-1960 there was a TV sitcom titled “Father Knows Best.” However, no one would probably dare suggest a TV show with that title today. And if they did, they would most likely be laughed into humiliation. In the show, Robert Montgomery plays the part of Jim Anderson and often gives wise and thoughtful counsel about situations his kids are dealing with. Under today's standards the show would most likely be accused of promoting white nationalism, misogyny and authoritarianism.

Instead of fathers being admired they, and men in general, are accused of possessing toxic masculinity which make them a danger to society. Fathers are mocked and are often made to look irresponsible, irrelevant and a bumbling fool. Father diffidently doesn't know best - in fact father doesn't know any thing - father is an incompetent moron.

All of this has been promoted to separate us from the teachings of our forefathers. It's not just about our father but our FATHERS and the whole concept of western civilization is under attack. No educated person today would ever suggest that Father knows best. Of course it is not just father but parental authority and the nuclear family that is being undermined.

Until recent years the teachings of our forefathers (I include our mothers) was a bedrock of our country and the whole of Western Civilization. And the Bible was the foundation of those teachings.

The primary text book for schools beginning in the 1840s was McGuffey Readers prepared by two brothers, William and Alexander McGuffey who wanted to educated students while teaching the values of salvation, righteousness, and piety.

However, while keeping the same name, McGuffey Readers changed with the 1879 edition, when the McGuffey brothers no longer had editorial control. The change took place to make it more adaptable to the growing pluralistic society. The newer version had plenty of references to God but most references to Jesus Christ was removed. The McGuffey brothers neither contributed or approved of these changes. But even with those changes McGuffey Readers is still considered almost sacred manuscripts compared to the trash being taught in our schools today.

In a letter to his son, Alexander wrote: “Remember my dear son to read a portion of the Bible every day and do not forget daily to pray to God to keep you from the evil and to prepare you for the duty of life and for the hour of your death. Think of your mother and often ask yourself how she would advise and what she would think of any course you are about to pursue.”

About 120 million copies of McGuffey's Readers were sold between 1836 and 1960, placing its sales in a category with the Bible and Webster's Dictionary. They continue to sell at a rate of about 30,000 copies a year.

Unfortunately, because of television, magazines, pop culture and public schools, hatred for our fathers and mothers is accelerating everyday.

Even Christian Conservatives feel compelled to slander our forefathers because of their racism. They call it America's original sin. Our forefathers taught us by their example that America was a White Christian country. We are told by the current crop of Christian Conservatives that we are to respect the religion of these heathen and their worthless gods.

I suspect that Christians who tell us we must respect these worthless gods are fearful of their standing in the community. But the reality is that they are fearful, afraid and ashamed of the teaching of their fathers - even though they profess otherwise.

Rev 21:8 is pretty clear “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone.”

We are told in Ex 20:12 “Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land.”

This is the only commandment that gives an immediate blessing for its obedience. This honoring your father and mother is extremely important. “My son, keep your father's command and do not forsake your mother's teaching.” Proverbs 6:20

Until the 1960s, America was White Centered and Christ Centered. Because that was the teachings of our fathers and mother but we didn't

Listen - We did not honor our fathers and mothers
"Listen to your father, who gave you life..."
Proverbs 23:22

"A wise son heeds his father's instruction..."
Proverbs 13:1

"Listen, my sons, to a father's instruction; pay attention and gain understanding." Proverbs 4:1

"When I was a boy in my father's house, still tender, and an only child of my mother, he taught me and said, "Lay hold of my words with all your heart; keep my commands and you will live. Get wisdom, get understanding; do not forget my words or swerve from them."

Proverbs 4:3-5

Throughout Proverbs God teaches each and every son and daughter listen to your father. Your father has things to tell you. He has things that you need to hear. Of course we also see in Scripture the value of a Christian mother.

Paul tells us that it was the faithful teachings of Timothy's mother and grandmother that gave him the spiritual foundation he needed for his life.

We as a nation, stopped listening to our fathers and mothers. In fact not only did we stop listening to them - we became ashamed of them.

In 1840 the United States Supreme Court stated, "The colonist were all of the white race and all professed the Christian religion. . . If any person of a different color or professing a different religion had come into the colony, he would not, at that time, have been recognized as an equal by the colonists, or deemed of participating with them in the privileges of this community."

Also in 1892 - after a lengthy supreme court opinion, they stated that there is "a volume of unofficial declarations to the mass of organic utterances that this is a Christian nation."

We were told in Proverbs to keep the laws of our father and the teachings of our mother. But we did neither. In fact - we are ashamed of the laws of our father and the teachings of our mother. Those laws and teaching preserved us as a nation and a people.

In Psalms 2: 1-3, "Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us."

The reason they don't want you to honor the teachings of your fathers and mothers is because they are afraid. The heathen say , "Let us break their bands asunder and cast away their cords from us."

The Good News Translation says, "Let us free ourselves from their rule, let us throw off their control." And that is precisely why there is this growing hatred for Christianity. Because Christianity puts controls on their sin.

They claim that Donald Trump and his supporters are a threat to Democracy. Because they want to do any thing they want - they do not want restriction on their sin. Christianity says, NO to their sin. So they want to throw off our rule of righteousness. They don't want Christians to have any control in any positions of government.

They want you to keep your mouth shut. We are in the midst of a generational hatred of our Christian Faith. This spirit of anti-Christ has been around for a long time. John tells us "And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world." 1 John 4:3

This evil spirit hates Jesus Christ, and therefore it hates all righteousness. It hates the white race - the children of the Abrahamic Covenant, that is why they want to genocide them through race-mixing.

They hate America because America was the political embodiment of the Christian faith. They hate the nuclear family. They hate all those things that are good and noble. They hate white women having white babies. They hate our little children and so they want to mutilate them with gender altering surgery and they hate the teachings of our fathers and our mothers.

Luke 15:11-20 "A man had two sons. 12 The younger son told his father, 'I want my share of your estate now before you die.' So his father agreed to divide his wealth between his sons. 13 "A few days later this younger son packed all his belongings and moved to a distant land, and there he wasted all his money in wild living. 14 About the time his money ran out, a great famine swept over the land, and he began to starve. 15 He persuaded a local farmer to hire him, and the man sent him into his fields to feed the pigs. 16 The young man became so hungry that even the pods he was feeding the pigs looked good to him. But no one gave him anything. 17 "When he finally came to his senses, he said to himself, 'At home even the hired servants have food enough to spare, and here I am dying of hunger! 18 I will go home to my father and say, 'Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, 19 and I am no longer worthy of being called your son. Please take me on as a hired servant.'" 20 "So he returned home to his father. Luke 15:11-20

Stop and think - What would have happened to him if he didn't know how to go home. If he wanted to go home but didn't know the way. That is where America is today. Millions of people say America needs to get back to God. Hundreds of thousands of preachers say we need to repent and get back to God. But here is the problem. The American people don't know how to repent. They don't know how to get back to God. They don't know how to go home.

The Prodigal son was eventually blessed and restored (adopted - Rom 9:4) into the family. But first he had to get home. Just knowing he was in a horrible situation wasn't enough. Just realizing he was better off when he was with his father, wasn't enough. Just wanting to go home wasn't enough - he had to actually go home. Just because million of Christians know American is swirling down the toilet, isn't enough. Just asking God to stop the swirl isn't enough. They have to go home. But they don't know how. The 5th commandment says to honor our fathers and mothers - that your days be long upon the land. Christians in America and other white nations also are under a curse. It isn't the enemies of our nation that are under a curse - we are losing our nation, we are losing our land and this is judgment because we have not obeyed the teachings of our fathers and mothers. Isaiah 14 shows us that Satan wants to be the universal law giver and we have been willing to follow his new laws. We have obeyed the new law of Satan which tells us. "Thou shall not be a racist" and in doing so our nation began to fall under a curse. Meaning we were no longer White Centered, Then we began to accept the new Satanic law that says, America must be tolerant to other religions and allow them to have free reign in our country. So then we were no longer Christ Centered.

Our fathers really did know best! END
